

Autism Awareness Month: Advances in Treatment Research

The National Institute of Mental Health is hosting a lecture in conjunction with the Department of Health and Human Services' month-long focus on raising autism awareness. Join us for this discussion on recent advances in autism treatment and research.

Speakers

Susan Swedo, M.D.

NIMH Pediatrics and Developmental Neuroscience Branch

Rebecca Landa, Ph.D.

Kennedy Krieger Institute

When and Where

Thursday, April 21, 2011
10:30–11:30 a.m.

Neuroscience Center
6001 Executive Boulevard
Conference Room C
Rockville, MD 20852

This event will also be accessible by live videocast and archived for later viewing at <http://videocast.nih.gov>.

