IACC Full Committee Meeting – July 19, 2011

2011 Summary of Advances

Mid-Year Installment

Self-Nomination Process:

- Nominations due July 22, 2011 - Each IACC member will select and send to OARC the full citations of up to 5 articles he/she considers to be top advances in the field of autism biomedical and services research for calendar year 2011 (published only – does not include e-pub only articles).
- OARC will compile the full list of articles received.
- OARC will send the full list to the committee and provide instructions for voting in order to narrow the list down to 10 publications that can serve as the mid-year installment for top advances.

Final installment will be completed in early 2012
